Grounds for Dismissal from Field Experiences

Candidates in a teacher education program participating in a clinical experience as a part of their degree program are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the requirements and expectations of their degree program. Candidates in a teacher education program should likewise not engage in unprofessional conduct or unlawful behaviors. In view of these expectations, students in a teacher education program participating in a clinical experience who are unable to meet these academic standards, as judged by faculty and cooperating teachers, may receive a failing grade and/or face possible removal from a particular clinical/field experience:

1. Candidates may not engage in any inappropriate interactions with pupils, guardians of pupils enrolled in the school or university personnel during the clinical experience. If you feel you are under any pressure to engage in inappropriate social activity, contact your university supervisor.
2. Candidates' social interactions and communications, including use of cellular phones, Email, and the Internet with school pupils, or guardians of pupils enrolled in the school, or school or university personnel, should be limited to those occurring in an official capacity at officially sponsored school events or sites.
3. Candidates may not be in the possession of or under the influence of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, firearms, weapons or substances on school property, nor with or in the presence of any school pupil(s).
4. Candidates may not use sexually explicit, obscene, profane, abusive, or derogatory language on school property or at school sponsored events; nor may they suggest access to inappropriate material (e.g., on the Internet).
5. Candidates may not escort or transport pupils off school property unless accompanied by the cooperating teacher or another full-time employee assigned by the principal.
6. Candidates may not leave school early, be late to school or seminars, or have absences on a consistent basis.
7. Candidates may not leave school early, be absent or at
